

Equestrian Class Schedule for Spring Equestrium 2015

---

	Indoor Arena		Outdoor Arena
Friday
5-10 PM	Open Riding		Set-up Course (During Day Light)
6-8 PM	Basic and Games Authorizations and Equestrian Marshal Training Available– Be on your horse and ready to ride if you would like to be authorized.
Saturday
8:00-9:00 AM	Basic and Games Authorizations and Equestrian Marshal Training Available – Be on your horse and ready to ride if you would like to be authorized.
10 am to Noon	"Close Quarters Drills and Engagement between Ground Combatants and Riders"		Challenge Course Obstacles Set for Open Riding (until 1 pm)
	THLady Doe ni Floinn (AnTir)
	Whether you ride or fight heavy this class is for you. We will work up to engagement with troops on the ground. The priority is acclimating the horses to the activity. If all goes well, we will continue to increase the level of engagement, until we are close enough to exchange blows with ground combatants. If all continues to go well, gentle shots may be placed. Riders of all levels and horses of all training are strongly encouraged to come out and give this activity a try as it will be a unique experience. No armor is required for horses and riders.                      Feel free to do as little or as much of the class as you feel comfortable with. Drop out at any time                      Ground Combatants are encouraged to attend the class in armor to get the feel of the addressing a mounted warrior.
Noon - 1 pm	Display – “Armor for SCA Mounted Activities”

These are just the arena based classes. Please take the time to explore the property on your own!

Space is available for Mounted Archery and Driving Classes if we have interested instructors, please contact Else at nancyreimers@gmail.com to volunteer.

Class List Current through 1/26/2015

Equestrian Class Schedule for Spring Equestrium 2015

---

Saturday (Con't)
1 PM to 2 PM	Indoor Arena	Outdoor Arena
	"Balance, Strength and Confidence Exercises!"	"Riding Elements to Create a Successful Buzkashi Horse"
	Lady Leia of Tarnmists	Viscountess Juliana of Avon, OWGS - WK Eq Champion
	Learn to improve your balance and strength while mounted. The exercises from this class will make riders stronger and a strong rider is a confident rider. Demonstration and practical practice elements. Attend mounted or unmounted.	Buzkashi is a fast paced game that can involve aggressive elements. Having a horse that is happy getting in the scrum helps for mounted melee, tag, pato, and horse soccer. Bring your horse and work through these skills in simple steps.
2 PM to 4 PM	"Proper Care and Return Condition for Loaner Horses and Tack Symposium"	"Challenge Course Symposium"
	Viscountess Gwendwyn the Silent, OWGS and able assistants	Viscount Gunther Barenjeager, Mistress Anne Fawn Haven, Baroness Aibinn Maighe Tuireadh, Lady Kathryn Onara
	Come learn the basics of caring for horses and tack to improve your self-sufficiency. Many horse owners state their biggest barrier to loaning a horse is that borrowers that are not knowledgeable need supervision. This series of mini-classes is designed to teach you the things you need to know. Unmounted.	Come out on horse or on foot for a series of mini-classes designed to help you use you your course walking time to your benefit, to ride obstacles with increased accuracy, and to improve your weapon targeting skills. Topics include: "Build and use a better pell – using simulators and games equipment to improve the precision and accuracy of your weapon strikes" "Precision in Figures" "Biomechanics" "Why am I doing the walking here – using the course walk time to your greatest advantage" and "Skills and planning to help you ride courses with accuracy and improve your scores."
4-5 PM	"Dressing the Horse and Rider"	"Riding Accoutred"
	Princess Marguerite of the Mists, OWGS	Duke Henrik of Havn, OWGS
	After the ponies, we are all in this for the glamour.	Come learn how to ride with a shield in hand. Some loaner shields available.

These are just the arena based classes. Please take the time to explore the property on your own!

Space is available for Mounted Archery and Driving Classes if we have interested instructors, please contact Else at nancyreimers@gmail.com to volunteer.

Class List Current through 1/26/2015

Equestrian Class Schedule for Spring Equestrium 2015

---

Sunday	Indoor Arena	Outdoor Arena
9-Noon
	“Mounted Steel Combat Workshop”		Challenge Course Obstacles Set for Open Riding
	Lord David Straker Whittaker (Caid), Mistress Else Hunrvogt, OWGS
	Come learn about and try fighting in the new mounted steel combat program. There will be instructors available to teach techniques on the ground. Loaner armor and weapons available for those that want to try it out for themselves. There may be loaner horses available. If you want to ride on your own horse, you are encouraged to supply your own equine eye protection, such as pelling protectors. Duke Marc and Sir Heinrich will be available to give basic instruction unmounted techniques that translate to safe and effective shots for the Steel Combat program. For more details about the program go here.

These are just the arena based classes. Please take the time to explore the property on your own!

Space is available for Mounted Archery and Driving Classes if we have interested instructors, please contact Else at nancyreimers@gmail.com to volunteer.

Class List Current through 1/26/2015